ALL SERENE.

The Meeting of the New York Democracy in State Convention at Saratoga To-day.

Harmony Reigns Supreme--All Factions Pacified and Pledge Themselves to Work Valiantly.

Saratoga the Mecca of all Eyes---The Caucuses and the Opening of the Convention.

Democratic Conventions.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 18—The democratic state convention adopted a platform last night congratulating the party on the brilliant prospects and put themselves in line with brethren of sister states; reaffirming the principles of the party; hail with pleasure the evidences of fraternal union enunciated by the various state conventions; that it is the duty of the country to protect all citizens and to conserve all industries; favors a tariff for revenue, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and adjusted so as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage production and home industry, afford a just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies. The general government should care for and improve the great water ways of the republic; favors the nomination of Tilden as not only essential as a rebuke to fraud and misgovernment, but is hereby declared to be the duty of the democratic party to itself and to the country, and requests the delegates from this convention to present and sustain the views expressed in these resolutions.

THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

SARATOGA, June 18.—It is now believed that the difficulty with Tammany will be settled by allowing that organization thirty delegates in the convention, instead of twenty-four. The county democracy in caucus this morning passed a resolution urging harmony.

IN CAUCUS.

The state democratic convention met at 11 o'clock and adjourned to distribute tickets. The convention meets at one o'clock. At a meeting of Tammany delegates at noon, John Kelly presiding, General Spinola announced that at a conference between the chairmen of the county democracy, Tammany and Irving Halls the representation of New York county should be as follows: County democracy, 31 delegates; Tammany, 31; Irving Hall, 10.

The delegates were then named, including John Kelly, and the caucus adjourned to visit Judge Hilton.

Irving Hall and the county democracy held a caucus and selected their delegates in accordance with the agreement of their chairman with Tammany. Irving Hall instructed their delegates to vote for Cleveland.

In the caucus of the county democracy and the state democracy this morning the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, The New York county democracy, meeting with the democracy of the state to name the Democratic candidates who shall receive the vote of every democrat and of a majority of the people for president and vice president of the United States, is prepared to make all necessary efforts and concessions to assure the democracy of the state and nation that the regular organization in the city of New York has at heart the true and largest interests of the party everywhere.

Resolved, That the four members of this organization upon the state committee be and they are hereby appointed a committee, with full power to use all reasonable efforts, to secure a harmonious representation for the city of New York.

At the Tammany caucus General Spinola said that Wm. C. Whitney, chairman of the county democracy, would announce to the convention the apportionment agreed upon by the democracy of New York county and would offer in its support a resolution that that apportionment be agreed upon. His remarks were applauded.

COMING TOGETHER.

1 p. m.—About 12:30 o'clock the delegates began to file into the hall. There seemed during the morning to be considerable confusion as to the interior arrangements of the building and its capacity to hold the people who rightly or wrongly succeeded in getting tickets of admission, thereby involving some danger of making confusion for the delegates. It became evident as the hour for the convention approached that while the building would be densely crowded there need be no confusion. The hall is devoid of banners or emblems of any kind. The platform was densely crowded. Before the convention opened the scene was that of a perspiring crowd in desperate efforts to cool the heated atmosphere. The morning has been spent by the various committees in tolerably successful efforts to cool the political air.

There is not a woman in the convention, no provisions having been made for their comfort. At 1:30 the convention was called to order by Samuel L. Manning, of Albany. In calling the convention to order he said: Gentlemen, I am directed by the unanimous vote of the state committee to nominate to you for temporary chairman William E. Smith; for temporary secretaries, James E. Morrison and James Martin. The resolutions were unanimously concurred in amid cheers. In the opening address he laid stress on the fact that the democratic party had gained large accessions to its ranks from the republicans. He said the democrats everywhere were looking anxiously at the action of this convention. [Cheers].

The roll of delegates was then called. During the roll call the name of Samuel J. Tilden, jr., was called and received the first outbreak of applause. John Kelly's name was also cheered.

Contesting papers were presented from the Ninth district of Kings county, by a delegate, who said that the sitting members had a title given them only by fraud, corruption, bribery and other methods repugnant to honest government. Soon after, the name of William Pursell, of Rochester, being called, elicited immense cheers. He arose and said: The delegation from the Second district of Monroe county would not take part in the convention unless their rights were fully recognized, (cheers.) Assistant District Attorney Fellows, of New York, arose and said: "His party was willing to do anything for harmony." (Cheers.) The name of John Kelly was received with prolonged cheers.

The rules of the assembly were adopted. Mr. Horrick, of Albany, offered the following resolution: That the delegates from the several congressional districts select one delegate for each congressional district to constitute a committee on credentials, to which committee shall be referred any contest. Adopted. Senator Grady moved an amendment, that no member shall vote on a contest affecting his own seat. Carried. Wm. C. Whitney, of New York, offered a resolution that a committee should be composed of a member from each congressional district be appointed to select delegates to the national convention, four delegates and four alternates from the state at large, two presidential electors at large and one elector from each congressional district. McGrady, of New York, offered an amendment to the resolution that in the New York representation at Chicago the county democrats should have four presidential electors and seven national delegates, Tammany three electors and seven delegates, and Irvin Hull one elector and two delegates. Adopted.

Ex-Senator Grady offered a resolution that in any case where the delegates of congressional districts are unable to agree upon the choice they should report the fact to the committee on delegates and electors, who shall report their recommendation in any such case for action. Adopted.

At 2:15 adjournment was taken until 7 p. m.

The members from all the districts except New York, were asked to remain to hand up the names of their representatives from the congressional districts. As the convention adjourned there was a call from some one for three cheers for Flowers, and it met with considerable response, but the chairman promptly restored order.

OTHER CONVENTIONS.

At Cleveland, Ohio, the democratic convention elected E. A. Burke, B. F. Joinas, A. A. Gumbie and R. C. Wickliffe delegates-at-large.

The democrats of Michigan met today at Detroit and named delegates whose preferences are unmistakably for Cleveland for president.

The Georgia state convention, in session at Atlanta, elected as delegates-at-large, E. C. Howell, A. O. Bacon, A. Walsh and A. Lawton.

IN COLORADO.

DENVER, Col., June 18.—At 2:30 this morning the democratic state convention, held at Pueblo, elected as delegates to Chicago, General Grant M. S. Walter, M. D. Crow, J. D. McGullroy, Dennis Sullivan and S. R. Letcher. The delegation are uninstructed, but Cleveland is the probable choice.

A NEIGHBORHOOD MILL.

John Vizzard Knocks the Magnetism Out of Mrs. Ed Conway--The Last Act in a Border Drama.

For some time a bad feeling and other susceptible cereals have been brewing between the Vizzards and Conways in the classic shades of Gooseville. The difficulties came to a focus this morning, when Mrs. Ed Conway and John Vizzard met at the corner of Melitia and Harrison streets. They saluted each other in a very belligerant manner, and Mrs. Conway evinced a severe desire to distribute Mr. Vizzard. John was not to be trifled with and struck Mrs. Conway a terrific blow in the face. He followed by kicking the woman fiercely, and would have done her murderous injury but for the interference of neighbors. An affidavit was filed against Vizzard, and Justice Ryan put a big fine on his head. Mrs. Conway is terribly bruised about the head and body, but is by no means conquered. Vizzard is a blacksmith.

A Card.

Having announced myself as a candidate for representative, I desire to say to the delegates of the convention that owing to sickness in my house I have been unable to see them personally, and hope they will remember my candidacy.

TURN THE RASCALS OUT

Rheumatism and Neuralgia have reigned supreme ever since the world knew them. They have tyrannised over all classes of people. They have laughed in the face of the medical profession.

Inspite of alkaline treatment, acid treatment, hypodermic injections, plasters, liniments, and every thing else that the medical faculty could suggest, Rheumatism and Neuralgia have held giant sway.

All that medical skill has been able to do in these terrible maladies is to afford temporary relief. ATHLOPHOROS is announced as an absolute cure.

Mr. Haden, of Fair Haven, Conn., had been tormented by neuralgia for years. Repeated fails of remedies had made him a confirmed skeptic. He says: "When I took the first dose of ATHLOPHOROS had no faith." Because everything had failed, he thought ATHLOPHOROS would also. But the second dose began to show its powerful effects.

With marvelous quickness ATHLOPHOROS cast out the old tormentor, and now there is no lack of faith on the part of the gentleman who was thus restored to perfect health.

He tried ATHLOPHOROS just as a last resort and because somebody told him it would cure him.

Thus it has been with many and many a victim of Rheumatism and Neuralgia. They have tried so many alleged remedies which proved worthless, that it is no wonder they were skeptical.

Now whether you are skeptical or not, just TRY

ATHLOPHOROS!

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

WALLA WALLA is shipping strawberries at the rate of 4000 pounds a day.

A PASSENGER train was snowed up in Canada from Thursday until Sunday.

HENRY WATTERSON has been visiting Mr. Tilden again. Now where is Jap Turpen.

DORSEY has been buying more cattle. He has probably gone out of the soap business.

THE Wabash road is paying its delinquent taxes. At Decatur, Ill., the company recently paid $11,048.

THE democratic national convention will make no mistake if they select Joseph E. McDonald as their standard bearer.

WHILE Blaine and Logan are preparing schemes to catch suckers, President Arthur and Secretary Lincoln have been after trout.

THE result of the conference between Blaine and Logan is anxiously awaited. Blaine will engineer a cunning and moneyed campaign on his side of the battle.

IT is not yet determined whether the New York democrats are for Cleveland or Flower, but it is pretty certain they are for Harmony.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

JUST at this time when so many are naming the ticket which can win THE SENTINEL begs leave to remind the people that McDonald and Slocum form an invincible host.

REPUBLICAN organs are publishing the statement that a lady in New York is reported to have offered to give her check for $100,000 if Flower receives the democratic nomination. Thus doth the budding flower bloom.

ELSEWHERE in this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. F. J. Hayden for representative. Mr. Hayden is an able man, and if nominated and elected, is well qualified to represent his constituents in this position.

THE republicans are now feeding themselves on the story that Harper's Weekly is of no great force after all. It makes a vast amount of difference with them on which side of the fence a paper or a man happens to be located.

THE latest news from the seat of war is that Robert Lincoln cannot bring himself to the point of supporting Blaine. It is said that he likes Logan, but that Blaine is too much crow for the young man. But when Bobby gets older he will be more accustomed to it and will relish a dish of the article now and then.

A MORMON missionary has invaded the sacred walls of the city of brotherly love and is preaching the many wives doctrine to the people. If the misled missionary would go through the state and persuade a few of the many politicians with which that locality is infested, to move to Utah the people would no doubt rise up and bless him.

THE Wilmington, Delaware, News seems to be having a rough time of it. It is recorded that upon receipt of its dispatches telling of the nomination of Blaine and Logan the paper came out flatfooted for those worthies. When the moon was a few days older it declared that the independent bolters were right, and straightway took down from the head of its editorial column the Chicago ticket. Again, as the changeful satellite began to wane the News swung back again, and now is a true blue organ. As the Philadelphia Times says, it is hard to find out in this case whether the paper has swallowed the crow or the crow the paper.

ALL good citizens will rejoice that the water works question has been finally settled. Although there may have been differences of opinion as to the proper course to pursue in the matter, yet all interested in the welfare of the city, will now accept the action of the council, which is composed of men who place private and individual interests as second to the demands and requirements of the city. A supply has now been secured which is inexhaustible and which THE SENTINEL has always believed to be the cheapest and the best plan proposed. Of this fact there can be no question when one of the councilmen, who, at first, was firmly opposed to the canal project, has, after investigation, became its advocate, and voted for its adoption. The matter is no longer a vexed question, the dilly-dallying is over and the proper method has been adopted. The council is to be congratulated upon its action.

McDONALD AS A CANDIDATE.

The Louisville Courier-Journal a few days ago contained a number of interviews with representative democrats, every one of whom spoke favorably of Mr. McDonald's candidacy. Lack of space forbids the publication of them all, but one with Mr. Robertson is so clear and to the point that we here reproduce it:

"McDonald has been my choice from the first," said Mr. Robertson. "I think we have gone to the east for a candidate long enough. Let us try the west once; if only for luck. At this time, too, we have the man of all others best calculated to win the fight. He is not in any particular hampered at home, and he stands conspicuously for the only principal upon which we are to go before the country—tariff reform. Then he is most distinctly a man for the people, having sprung from the heart of the laboring masses, and representing as he does in his busy and reproachless life, their best aim and endeavors. We hear a great deal about Mr. Blaine's strength, because of his being so intensely American. Is he, could he be, more of an American in any of his tastes or aims, than McDonald? McDonald, indeed, is rather to be likened to Lincoln, for his loyalty to friendship, his sturdy good sense, his plain manner of living, and that hearty sympathy which embraces all mankind."

"Do you think he can carry New York?"

"I can conceive of no good reason why he cannot. Tammany would have no excuse for opposing him, and he ought to be particularly acceptable to the financial interests. He has always been the champion of hard money, and stood by it at times when he was almost its only friend of any consequence in the west."

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE.

The campaign of 1884 will be the greatest political battle in the history of the country. It means the struggle between two great political parties, the one backed by all the strength and machinery of the government, coupled with all its patronage, its influence and the wealth which it controls, against a party which hoists as its watchword "equal rights, equal protection and reform in every department of governmental affairs," supported only by the votes of its adherents and the desire of right and justice to prevail. The success of the one means a continuation of the present form of government with all its corruptions, its thievery and its stealings; an increase in office holders with princely salaries and the same old line of policy under which we are now laboring, while the triumph of the other means reform; it means protection to the laboring man as well as to the wealthy; it means fairness and justice and, best of all, a complete overhauling in all departments which for twenty-four years have been controlled by the same party in self-interest and for self-aggrandizement.

In this struggle it behooves the democracy to move with extreme caution, there must be no mistake made in the selection of a standard bearer. He must, first of all things, be above reproach. His career must be one which will grow brighter under investigation and to which the party can point with pride. He must be a man who has proven himself to be in sympathy with the great principles and the demands for reform, upon which his party base its hope for success. He must be a man of the people, one in whom all classes have confidence, a friend to the poor and the oppressed. His life, in looking back over his career, must give evidence of judgment, of prudence and of wisdom, so that no interests of this country of ours shall be endangered if placed in his hands, but on the contrary strengthened and promoted. He must be a leader among men, one who can lift the banner of democracy on high and, rallying the hosts about him, march on to victory.

There are many men mentioned for this position. There are "booms" almost without number and THE SENTINEL has not a word to say in opposition to any one of them, but the west is certainly entitled to a candidate this year, above all other years and Indiana has but one name to present for that position. The democracy of this state, a faithful and true democracy, presents the name of a man who fills all these qualifications; a man who has risen from obscurity to a high position, and who at the same time has grown in the hearts of the people; a man never found wanting, but whose entire career, both public and private, is one to which any one may proudly refer; a man of the people, plain and unassuming, yet competent and honorable in all things, and that man is Joseph E. McDonald. With McDonald as our standard-bearer and with any good eastern man for the second place, but especially with General Slocum, there will be no fears of the result. The campaign would be one in which principle would enter and on this point the republican party is vulnerable. If a personal campaign would in any way be forced upon us, the history of Joe McDonald's life would not reveal any railroad swindles, Mulligan letters or South American outrages. There is every reason to believe that he would be acceptable to the democracy everywhere and would bring around him every element which would insure his triumphant election in November.

Miss Ida Kellogg's Concert.

Last evening, at the First Baptist church, Miss Ida Kellogg was tendered a benefit by the citizens of the city. The program was an excellent one and embraced such talent as Prof. Wales, the Haydn quartet, Miss Clara Kenower, of Huntington, Miss Albert, Miss Stella Lawrence, Prof. Heath and Miss Kellogg and each number was faultlessly rendered. Prof. Wales rendered an overture in masterly style. The Haydn quartet and quintet, Miss Kenower, Miss Lawrence and Miss Kellogg received enthusiastic encores. The harp solos of Miss Albert were very fine, the lady handling the instrument with much skill. Miss Lawrence has a sweet voice and received many compliments. Miss Kenower contributed in no small measure to the success of the entertainment, which the lady in whose benefit it was arranged, must certainly note as a very pleasant occasion. Miss Kellogg possesses an excellent voice and we trust will find a high rank among the artists of the country.

Unless arrested this kind of cold becomes seated in the mucous membrane of the head. Then it is catarrh. In any and all its stages this disease always yields to Ely's Cream balm. A resolution empowered the council committee on education to visit and inspect the public schools when desirable. The committee will report the result of their visits to the council.

The fire committee has been instructed to remove the telegraph poles from the east side of the market house.

The report of the finance committee, embodying an agreement from Bass, Simons and Fleming to convey to the city the feeder canal property, water and a right to take a supply from the St. Joe river, was read.

Councilman Hamilton spoke in advocacy of the proposition, which, he said, was the best ever offered the city. It gives an immediate and permanent water supply from the canal, the right to get a supply from any point in the St. Joe river, binds the canal owners to defray half the expenses of making repairs in the canal or feeder and finally stipulates that at the expiration of fifteen years the canal is to become entirely the property of this city.

Councilman Prentiss, who is an expert water works engineer, said the pipe plan to the St. Joe river was impracticable, because the pipe would have to raise its head at the river and the pumping house, thereby laying itself liable to fill up with mud or debris in a single night, as was the case at Lafayette. He also said if the laying of pipes to the St. Joe river would cost a penny it would cost $60,000 and then the water supply would depend entirely upon the length of time the Rudisill dam would hold, and he did not deem the Rudisill dam any safer than the feeder dam.

Councilman Kensill arose and said he believed the proposition from the canal people to be a good one and would vote for it provided the canal would be cleaned out. He was assured it would and was twited by Ely for voting for the canal. Turning to Mr. Ely, Councilman Kensill said he was elected to do right for the tax-payers of the city, and did not propose to blindly vote away $60,000 for a forcible and uncertain supply of water from the St. Joe river, while he could get a friendly supply and the canal supply besides for $15,000. Mr. Kensill was applauded.

Councilman Lumbard followed with sledge hammer arguments in favor of the canal.

The proposition and resolution to purchase the canal, water right and right from the St. Joe river for $15,000 was agreed to by the following vote: Ayes 11, viz.: Councilmen Boltz, Doehrman, Hamilton, Kensill, Kramer, Lumbard, Martin, Prentiss, Reidmiller, Scheid and Welch. Nays 6, viz.: Councilmen Ely, Lincoln, Michael, Vordermark, A Wolf and J. Woulfe.

The Terre Haute and Fort Wayne clubs met yesterday for the first time and royally did our boys receive them. At first it seemed as though the visitors would have a walk-away, because a bad error by Smith let in four runs. The home team, however, got in their work later and came out on top.

CAUGHT A THIEF.

Officer Owens Nabs John W. Tracy in the Act of Breaking into a Chicago Street Residence---A Bad Man.

It is seldom burglars bother Officer Pete Owens, but when they do a collision is highly probable. John W. Tracy sauntered into Mr. Owens' territory and proceeded to break into the residence at No. 62 Chicago street. The fellow cracked the shutters of a side window and raised the sash. Officer Owens got onto the robbery and stealthily approached Tracy, who was found in his stocking feet ready to do the house. The fellow was armed and would have defended himself but the officer got the drop and landed him in the cooler. He had chisels, a jimmy, hammers and pinchers with him, besides skeleton keys. He is a brother of the Tracy now in the penitentiary for murder and is considered a bad man. The police judge sent him to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

One reason why the treatment of rheumatism is so frequently wanting in success is that the local remedies applied do not reach the seat of the disease, which is the blood. Athlophoros deals at once with the obstructive acid which poisons and inflames the system, and by expelling it invigorates the action of the muscles, limbers the joints and brings renewed health to the wearied frame. Miss Mary A. Danforth was cured of rheumatism of long standing by one day's use of this medicine.

PUBLIC HEALING OF THE SICK FREE OF CHARGE TO ALL.

Circle of Medicated Science--Dr. Delmeta DeVessey, C. M.S., and Mme. M. L. DeVessey, C. M.S.---Public Healing of the Sick at the Academy of Music, Fort Wayne, Ind., Free of Charge to All From 8 to 11 O'clock A. M.

Will remain in Fort Wayne from three to four months.

At Fleming House, 22 and 24 W Berry Street.

The World Renowned Magnetic and Psycologic Physicians will heal the sick every morning for one week, commencing THURSDAY, JUNE 19. Every morning for ONE WEEK ONLY! Free of charge to all. THE LAME WALK! THE DEAF HEAR! THE BLIND SEE! Without the aid of any poisonous medicine, Thursday, the 19th of June. All are invited to come to the Academy of Music from 9 to 11 a. m., and witness remarkable skill in the art of curing disease by the Circle of Medicated Science, where all who are afflicted rejoice at their recovery in health. Dr. Delmeta DeVessey and Mme. M. L. DeVessey are permanently located at 22 and 24 Berry street, Fleming house, where they have private parlors for the reception of the sick. All are invited to call. Consultation free of charge to all. No patient treated without permanent cure. Drs. DeVesseys have gained the world-wide reputation of being the most successful Magnetic, Electric and Psycological Physicians of the world. Come to the Fleming house and have your case examined. Their equal is without parallel, and are second to none in Healing the Sick. Remember that Drs. DeVesseys have private parlors at the Fleming House, and business strictly confidential. Come one and all who suffer from whatever cause, and be cured for life. The Lame Walk! The Deaf Hear! without the use of any medicines. Interview these eminent physicians. They will tell you what is the matter with you and the cause of your affliction. If you can be cured they will tell you so. Magnetism, Electricity and Psychology is the Specific practice, and will cure the most obstinate case in all old Chronic Affections, where all others have failed. It will pay those living at a distance to come a hundred miles to receive one treatment. In many cases one Magnetic Treatment effects a cure for life. All who are skeptical and doubt Drs. DeVesseys' healing powers should not fail to come to the Academy of Music for one week, commencing Thursday, June 19, and witness the most wonderful cures. All are invited free!

Drs. DeVesseys treat successfully all Chronic Diseases, Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Sore Throat, Sore Eyes, Paralysis, Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cancers, Fistula, removed without the knife, ligature or caustic. All diseases eradicated from the blood without mercury or delay in business. All female complaints cured from whatever cause. Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Defective Memory, Aversion to Society, Despondency and Dejected Spirits. If you are sick be convinced that Magnetism and Psychology is the only curative agency in the laws of nature that will cure diseases of every kind. Mme. M. L. DeVessey, a most competent lady physician, to attend to ladies in all Uterine Derangements of the generative organs. A lasting cure guaranteed in all cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration.

Ye invalids whose prostrate health,
Lie dormant in fragile frames
Doth life not speak from streams of wealth,
Yes, try and get good health again.

Every body's duty is to go and attend this scientific course of healing, and see for themselves the most marked demonstration of magnetic skill. Open your reflective faculties. Does not the employment of magnetism as a treatment and cure for disease date its origin back to the remote ages of antiquity? Were not the learned ancients more thoroughly versed in the execution of its powers? Has not both sacred and profane histories handed down some score of remarkable cures performed by skillful magnetizers in the different ages of the world? How very few modern thinkers have their attention directed to these leading phenomenas, which rest in the interior principles of mankind. Man simply defined is a wonderful being. So finely organized is a part of the earth—earthly; moved around by an outside source beyond himself which he does not seem to comprehend. Evidently the force is chemical action; the aperative force effecting change that cause may be brought about and effects seen and felt and made interesting to the progressive mind in all stages of existence. It is not to say that man is sick and must remain so. Not at all. Try to get well, and you shall have health and enjoy long lived happiness.

You have an opportunity now which you may never have again. Go to the Fleming house, 22 and 24 West Berry street, and interview the Drs. DeVessey and be cured for life. They will treat no patient without effecting a lasting cure. All business confidential. Come early and avoid the crowd. Address all communications, Drs. DeVessey, C. M. S., Fleming house, 22 and 24 West Berry street, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Chronic Costiveness Cured by Brandreth's Pills.

BULLY BUENO MILL, Arizona Ter., Jan. 24, 1883.

For the last two years I have been greatly troubled with costiveness, often ten or twelve days elapsing without any movement of my bowels. I have tried many remedies, but none with success, until I used your vegetable pills—taking three pills and increasing one each night until I took nine, then decreasing one each night. Since then my bowels have continued regular each day, and my headache, sour stomach and general lassitude have left me, and I feel like another man—which is entirely owing to your pills—and I would not be without them in this new country.
